

Performance Points for ESB Accredited Qualifications

Extracted from the National Database of Accredited Qualifications (www.accreditedqualifications.org.uk)

All accredited ESB exams suitable for school age students have been allocated performance scores which can be used when you compile your School Achievement and Attainment (league) tables. This means every pupil doing one of the ESB exams below contributes to your calculation of the average point scores and threshold achievement for the school as a whole.

- Performance figures are an indication of the level of attainment for a qualification, compared with other quals within the National Qualifications Framework.
- Contribution to threshold This second component to the scoring system for each qualification is expressed as a percentage.
 - All qualifications to be included in achievement and attainment tables have been assigned a contribution to threshold percentage.
 - Level 2 qualifications contribute to both the Level 2 and Level 1 thresholds (whereas Level 1 qualifications only contribute to the Level 1 threshold).
 - While there is no Entry Level threshold as such, Entry Level qualifications will contribute to the average point score, value added calculations, and 'achieved at least an entry level' indicator.
